SCHLEY'S DEMAND.

Asked For a Full Investigation of Maclays Libelous Charges.

Secretary Long Will Name a Court of Inquiry And Open Court Will Be Held.

Washington, July 24.—Secretary Long this morning received a letter from Rear Admiral Schley, calling attention to the criticisms against him which are contained in Maclays "History of the Navy," and the innuendoes which have appeared in the press for several days, and stating that, in his opinion, the time had now come to take such action as would bring the entire matter under the "clear and calm review of his brothers in arms." He asked that the department take such action as was deemed best to accomplish this purpose. He also requested that whatever action be taken should occur in Washington, where his papers and data are stored.

The Secretary immediately decided to comply with Admiral Schley's request, and dictated a letter to the Rear Admiral saying that under the circumstances he heartily approved of his action, and that the department would proceed at once in accordance with his request.

Although no positive declaration has been given on this point, it is assumed about the Navy Department that Admiral Dewey will be president of the court which will inquire into the whole controversy concerning the actions of Admiral Schley during the Spanish war. There also is an impression that the two other members of the court will be retired naval officers, or at least officers who have had no connection with the Santiago campaign. The selection of retired officers would have a double advantage. Not only would they be free from any prejudice growing out of their action connection with the department, but they would have no fear of future consequences arising from their course while members of the board.

The court of inquiry will probably not proceed with its work until fall. Secretary Long said to-day that it would be unfair to ask a court of inquiry to convene in Washington during the present extreme hot weather for the prosecution of an inquiry which promised to be quite protracted.

MARKET IRREGULAR.

No Fine Leaf Sold and Lugs Shade Lower.

The tobacco market opened up unsatisfactory this week and continued very irregular throughout the sales. No fine tobacco was sold and lugs were a shade easier. No one seems disposed to offer good leaf, and the market is strictly one of the low grade tobaccos. The entire offerings this week were inferior in character and off in order. Sales amounted to 446 hogsheads.

JUDGE GOODNIGHT.

Falls a Victim to Typhoid Fever Wednesday.

Honorable Career Ended at The Early Age of 52 Years.

Franklin, Ky., July 24.—Circuit Judge I. H. Goodnight died at 5 o'clock this afternoon. His body will lie in state at his home in this city Friday. Great crowds of people have visited the dead jurist's home to show their respect.

Funeral services will be held in the Cumberland Presbyterian church at 5:20 o'clock Friday afternoon, after which the burial will take place in Green Lawn cemetery.

The death of Judge Goodnight creates a vacancy in the Judge's office in this, the Seventh judicial district. Simpson, Logan, Todd and Muhlenberg counties make up the district. This vacancy will be filled by appointment by Gov. Beckham. The appointee will hold office until a Judge is elected in November and qualifies.

Judge Goodnight's Career.

Isaac Herschel Goodnight was born in Allen county, Ky., January 31, 1849, son of Isaac and Lucinda (Billingsly) Goodnight.

In 1870 Herschel Goodnight moved from Allen county to Franklin, Simpson county, Ky. He was graduated from Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1872, attended the law department of the same institution till 1873 and entered on the practice of law in Franklin in 1874. He represented the county of Simpson as a Democrat in 1877-78 and took a high stand both as a member of influence and ability and of personal popularity. In the same body was Gen. Abe Buford, many years his senior, but such an attachment sprung up between them that Gen. Buford, then at the head of the turf in Kentucky, named one of his favorite race horses which proved a winner for him.

After becoming a leading member of the bar in his judicial district he was in 1889 elected to the Fifty-first Congress and re-elected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third congresses, serving six years from 1889 to 1895. In this position he enjoyed more than a local popularity and influence, his personal qualities supplemented by his recognition as among the ablest representatives from Kentucky. Ill health compelled him to decline further service in Congress, but having recuperated his strength he was elected in 1897 Judge of the Seventh Kentucky Circuit court, which office he has filled with equal honor to himself and his profession. At the time of his death he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

ANOTHER COMPANY

Buying Oil and Mineral Privileges in the County.

Indications Point Strongly to Oil in Paying Quantities—25,000 Acres Leased.

Another new oil company has been organized here to operate in Northwest Christian.

The incorporators are Joe McCarroll, James Breathitt, W. T. Fowler and A. P. Crockett of the local bar and W. S. Elgin, W. D. Shaw and L. G. Williams.

They have already secured mineral and oil leases on 25,000 acres of land in North Christian, extending from Pilot Rock to Todd county and eastward nearly to Crofton.

There are fine prospects for oil in many places. Along Pond river, Forbes' creek and Coal creek there are numerous oil sipes and there are also several wells in which the water is spoiled by oil and tests made of the oil have shown that it is of a fine quality.

The incorporators are enthusiastic over the outlook and are preparing to have wells sunk at once.

UP GOES WHEAT.

Drouth Causes An Advance in all Cereals.

New York, July 24.—Some interesting figures have been presented to illustrate the effects of drouth upon grain, especially wheat and corn, and stocks.

It is estimated that the present drouth has caused a shrinkage in stocks of $89,397,500, a shrinkage in wheat production of $200,000,000 bushels.

The rise in corn of 14 cents a bushel makes the present estimate of the crop worth $56,000,000 more than before the drouth.

The rise of wheat of 7 cents a bushel makes the present estimate of the crop worth $50,000,000 more than before the drouth.

HOT TUESDAY.

July 23 Warmest Day Ever Recorded Here.

Mercury Wipes Out All Records and Goes to 109 Degrees—Other Hot Days.

The hot spell reached its culmination Wednesday, making a record of 109 degrees. All over Kentucky the mercury stood above 100. Paducah claimed the distinction of being the hottest place in the state, with a record of 112 by the government thermometer.

The record of that day in Louisville was 105.2. The following day, the 24th, was the record-breaker in Louisville, the record being 107. In this city there was a decided improvement Wednesday, the thermometer at the government station showing only 103. Yesterday was a little cooler, if the term can be used in discussing century records.

Other Hot Days.

According to former records the hottest day ever felt in Hopkinsville was August 13, 1881, when the mercury stood at 107. With this exception 1896 was the hottest summer for many years. Three different months, July, August and September, the record was up in the hundreds.

July 3 it was 103 and again Aug. 1 and 2. Aug. 3 it was 104 and Aug. 4, 105. Then on Sept. 11 and 14 it stood even 100.

In 1899 the hottest weather of the summer was in September. On Sept. 4 it was 101 and Sept. 5, 102. In 1900 August 19 was the hottest day, 102.

This year there have been already 10 or 12 century marks reached.

Notwithstanding the intense heat there have been no fatal prostrations in Hopkinsville. Several persons have been overcome by the heat, but a little care brought them around allright. Dr. J. R. Armistead, Rev. J. T. Rushing and Mr. L. E. Fowler were among those made ill by the hot weather. They were able to resume business in a few hours.
